Castro Puts Off Release Session

From News Dispatches

HAVANA, Oct. 9—Prime Minister Fidel Castro postponed his scheduled meeting today with New York attorney James B. Donovan on the release of 1113 Cuban invasion prisoners, informed sources reported.

There was no immediate indication when the two would meet.

Castro has been demanding $62 million in cash "indemnities" for the release of the prisoners. It was reliably reported that $17 million in cash has been deposited in Canada in favor of the Cuban National Bank in connection with the prisoner-release negotiations.
